Witam, Calafia!

As our first year as Baron & Baroness draws to its end, we sit back and reflect on the past twelve months. So much has happened, but yet it seems like the time has flown by. This year especially has been filled with grief, sorrow and loss, but it also has overflowed with the joy and companionship of friends. Calafia, and Caïd, continue to grow strong and we look forward to the coming year with anticipation.

Coronation was spectacular. Bittersweet as we bid farewell to Edward & Mora, but amazing as we watched with pride when the Crowns of Caïd were placed on the heads of Patrick & Kara. I had hoped to do better at Queen's Champion, but I know that all of Kara's Champions will serve Her well. Our travels brought another farewell to our Cousins Thomas Blackkeep & Marina Zanne, as Rudolph Fekter and Amicia Sennet de Bruges stepped up as the third Baron & Baroness of Naevehjem.

Calafia Anniversary was very special to us. The day was filled with memories & friends. We saw the recognition of members of our hardworking & skillful populous, including the newest member of the Order of Leodamus of Thebes. We witnessed Championship fights for Calafia that displayed wonderful examples of prowess & chivalry. We heard the laughter of children and the voices of friendship. It reaffirmed our belief that we hold in trust the best Barony in the Known World, and allowed us to look forward to helping guide Calafia as we continue our journey. On Sunday, we spent a relaxing day watching the Pas d'armes for Armored & Rapier. The Gallery's participation truly made the Pas worth attending, as they reprimanded and rewarded those individuals upon the field, guiding them by reminding them of what the Pas stood for as well as enjoying the fun and joy displayed.

We look forward to Winter Arts, as we spend one last time together this year to celebrate & share art, food, and companionship. We also will be announcing a contest there for the Ships that travel within our harbor...

After the New Year, the schedule picks up again. We will attend 12th night to witness the investiture of Dreiburgen's new Baron & Baroness. Then it's off to Angels Melee, then Gyldenholt Unbelted, and we will end the month at one of our favorite events, the In-Sand-ity tourney in Pol Na Gainmhe; an event that I always look forward to.

Until we meet again, please stay safe, embrace your loved ones, and enjoy the season.

Don Oliver & Pani Kate Dogberry
Baron & Baroness of Calafia

Collegium coming up. Need to make sure all list assistants take List class w/ kingdom officer before new warrants are processed. Need to make sure current warranted deputies take class before warrants are renewed. This is a kingdom requirement. If they've taken the class, they're good.

Still doing list training @ Tiny Tourneys (3rd Wed. of every month) May not make it out this month, as I might have a familial obligation.

Marshal - I was marshal in charge at Leodamus of Thebes tourney; we had 12 fighters. I attended 2 practices. There were no problems or incidents. I have selected a deputy!

Rapier -

Unarmoured -

Youth -

Baronial Household - Baronial household meeting topic was "heraldry", taught by THL Eridana. We had several new people from Comic Con in attendance. Several of these people showed up at Leodemus of Thebes. Thanks to Finguhula for the box of loaner garb chitons. Several naked newbies wore them. Our meeting was very well attended, some older members showed up. Have no idea what next month's class will be. Will post on the list. There were no problems or incidents.

Baronial Groups

St. Artemas - We held a meeting, which we included some fun activities. Attendance was enhanced, with about 10 people present, which was nice. We discussed further plans for Fall recruiting. We set a date for an on-campus dance, and approved a budget for it. Additionally, we held a silk banner workshop, to which three people attended. There are no upcoming events for the remainder of the month. Artemas is having fewer activities due to the summer schedule. There were no problems or incidents.

St. Isadore -

Summergate - We held 2 Fighter Practices, 8-10 attendees at both; Archery practices, 2 attendees at the first one of the month and cancelled 2nd one; Scriptorium 8-10 people have been attending. We also held a Council meeting 18 with in attendance.

We are getting ready for Longsword/Greatsword Tournament on October 31st. Gaml and Danyel are the autocrats. Arts and Sciences, Danyel, is planning a shield painting

We have a new Chatalaine (Though a Male Version, whatever that's called), Karl Von Rothenburg.

Tanwayour - I attended our Canton Meeting on the first Sunday of the month and a Calafian Baronial Seneschals meeting. We are working on doing lunch for the populous at Calafian Anniversary as a Canton and for the Royals. we really haven't had any problems other than getting all the receipts from our cooks at Tanwayour Anniversary.

Baronial Guilds

Co. of St. Catherine - We didn't meet in August due to vacations. Our next meeting will be Tuesday, Sept. 8 at 6:30pm at Thea's home. There were no problems or incidents.

Costumers - Lady Fionnghuala taught a class on making period buttons on August 10. Nine people attended. Our up coming meetings are: September 14, 2009: TBA. October 12, 2009: Veronica Lytle, Gambesons.

Needleworkers -

Rapier -

Scholars guild - July meeting was our "lame excuse for a cookout." Baron David showed some sausage making techniques, and did a demo of flint and steel fire starting. Approx. 12 people in attendance.

August meeting: We will be convening on the first TUESDAY of the month at Upstart Crow Bookstore in Seaport Village to join the San Diego Shakespeare Society for a reading of Macbeth. This is part of a series of audience-participation readings hosted by the SDSS, and if we find it enjoyable/educational, we may return for others (particularly Henry IV, in October) in the future.

QC Archery - no report
